Location

The Setai, in the center of South Beach, offers guests year-round service in a beachfront property that showcases the influence of the neighborhood's architectural history as well as its cultural diversity. Originally built in the 1930s as the Dempsey Vanderbilt Hotel, the Art Deco building now sits next to the hotel's 40-story glass tower that rises above the landscape for extraordinary city views. Today, the property focuses on reducing the harmful effects on the environment and promoting an undef... Read More
